

Please do not allow cellular telephone use on airplanes during flights. This will increase the noise level and intrusiveness in the plane. I cannot imagine 150 cell phone conversations going on at once. Just imagine the noise and annoyance level from all those phones ringing. I would think the flight attendants would also find this a problem when trying to serve beverages or food.